

Merial's Noel Reid Young Riverina Ambassador Award Nomination Form

Do you know someone who would make a great Young Ambassador for the Riverina Merino wool industry? Nominations for Merial's Noel Reid Young Riverina Ambassador Award are now open.

Your nominee might be a jackaroo, jillaroo, junior manager, graduate, or other person working in the wool or merino industry in the greater Riverina region. Your nominee could work in agriculture, production, or an agri-business associated business and should characterise ability, leadership, and ambition in his or her profession. Most of all, your nominee must be dedicated to the industry and the Riverina and have the capacity to make a great Young Riverina Ambassador for the Riverina Merino wool industry.

Merial's Noel Reid Young Ambassador Award is open to any young person under the age of 29 whose life, work and ambition in the Merino industry link them to the greater Riverina area.

The Young Riverina Ambassador will win a place on the Marcus Oldham Rural Leadership Program in the next calendar year, a prestigious heritage plate, and the lifelong recognition that being a Young Riverina Ambassador brings.

The Award commemorates the achievements of Mr Noel Reid, OAM, honoured member of the Riverina community and Secretary of the Association from 1978 - 1992.

Finalists are selected for an interview with the judging panel.
