

Landmark Pennefather Perpetual Trophy for the Junior Judge of the Year Nomination Form

Do you have previous good form and experience judging Merinos? The Landmark Pennefather Perpetual Trophy for the Junior Judge of the Year is a top opportunity and a good career move offering great prizes.

If you're aged 25 years and under, you can enter the competition, which takes place at the Hay Merino Sheep Show on the first Saturday in June. You could win an all-expenses paid trip to New Zealand, staying at leading New Zealand Merino Studs. There are cash prizes for second and third place.

Studs and individuals are encouraged to nominate people under 25 years of age who have previous form and experience in Merino judging.

The Landmark Pennefather Perpetual Trophy for the Junior Judge of the Year is judged on several criteria. Entrants need to know the important points of today's modern Merino and be able to substantiate their choices in an open forum amongst senior judges.

For more information, phone Riverina Merino on (02) 6959 1180.
